MEMORANDUM FOR: Major General C. V. Clifton, USA
Military Aide to the President

This is to acknowledge your memorandum of 3 December to Mr. McCone concerning awards for members of the Central Intelligence Agency. We are in the process of preparing these and will be forwarding a memorandum for the President very shortly.

Concerning your query on the availability of decorations, I am attaching an excerpt from our regulations. You will note that paragraph 37b provides for a series of medals and decorations.

In regard to the National Security Medal, aside from Directors, Kermit Roosevelt, Richard Bissell and all received this for work with the Agency.
